

Siemens Energy Oil & Gas Consulting Road Show

The Siemens Energy Oil & Gas Consulting has regional sales and project execution capacities in USA, Singapore and Middle-East. A team of nearly 250 process, mechanical and information technology engineers are engaged in supporting the various practices across the world.

The portfolio consists of consulting solutions and services for Operational performance management (Operations Intelligence Solution), Process safety management and Conceptual Design Studies

The Road Show covers a general overview of Oil & Gas consulting and specific coverage of inspection data management system to improve reliability and plant safety.

Asset integrity management is critical to the operation of any process facility. It is important to closely monitor and manage the health and remaining life of fixed equipment. Failure to do so can expose your operation to equipment failure, unplanned downtime, and loss of containment - even loss of life.

Siemens UltraPIPE, worlds most popular Inspection Data Management System (IDMS), sets the standard for corrosion monitoring and predictive inspection scheduling, and assists in overall asset integrity management initiative of a manufacturing facility.

This powerful tool enables operators to input, organize, analyze and document thickness inspection data. With an UltraPIPE implementation:

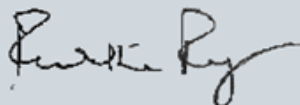

- All equipment inspection data is stored, accessed, and managed on a single platform.
- Management reports allow you to prioritize inspection by due date and increase operating efficiency.
- Critical and non-compliant equipment conditions have increased visibility.
- Thickness readings can be automatically transferred from data loggers into UltraPIPE to reduce the chance of errors.

The occasion will give you an opportunity to know from your industry peers about the key initiatives undertaken by them to improve performance and be safe.
